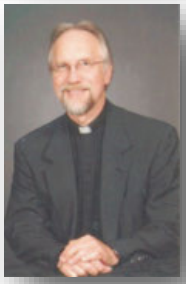
From the Pastor's Desk



Dear Cathedral and St. Mary Mission Families,

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of The Epiphany of the Lord. The word 'epiphany' can mean a "shining upon" or a "showing forth". Jesus is revealed by the guidance of the Star of Bethlehem leading the "Wise Men" who find Him in the manger and present their gifts to Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. This Solemnity calls us to draw closer to the Lord and offer our gifts to Him in love and gratitude…

Thank you to all of you who offer your gifts of Time, talent, and treasure to serve the Lord here in our Cathedral parish and the Mission of St. Mary's in Big Bay! Special thanks to those of you who responded to the invitation to make a special year-end donation to our Cathedral to help us keep operating and serving everyone…

On Monday, Jan. 9th, we'll celebrate the Feast of The Baptism of the Lord and that will conclude the Christmas season and will lead us into what we call Ordinary Time in the liturgical calendar. Our beautiful Christmas decorations will be coming down with that, again with gratitude for all who helped decorate our churches and will help un-decorate.

On January 9th at 6:30 p.m. we will celebrate First Reconciliation with our children. Please keep them and their families in prayer as they receive God's great mercy!

Remember the next "Ignite" evening will be on Tuesday, Jan. 10th at 6 p.m. and the next Men's Ministry meeting will be on Saturday, Jan. 14th at 8:45 a.m. in the Media Room. God bless you and yours day by day!

In the Hearts of Jesus and Mary,

✝ Msgr. Michael J. Steber

The Epiphany of the Lord

Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage." After their audience with the king they set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

- From Sunday's Gospel Mt 2: 7-12

Verso L'alto

(to the heights)

With Father Ben Rivard

I'm back from Ironwood! Please know that I missed you all. My bulletin articles should resume their normal schedule. This week we will continue to explore the symbolic meaning of the structure and furnishings of church buildings. This article will turn its attention to the sanctuary.

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal describes the sanctuary as "the place where the altar stands, the Word of God is proclaimed, and the Priest, the Deacon, and the other ministers exercise their functions" (GIRM, 295). The sanctuary is distinct from the nave which is where the congregation is located. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal also notes that the sanctuary "should be appropriately marked off from the body of the church either by its being somewhat elevated or by a particular structure and ornamentation. It should, moreover, be large enough to allow the Eucharist to be easily celebrated and seen" (GIRM, 295).

Most sanctuaries are elevated although some are marked off in other ways. However, it is preferable that the sanctuary be elevated. The sanctuary should make us think of mountains which in Scripture were considered sacred places of encounter with God. Think of Moses on Mount Sinai, Elijah on Mount Carmel, or the Transfiguration of Jesus on Mount Tabor. More importantly, think of John 6 when Jesus goes up a mountain and performs the miracle of multiplying loaves and fishes to feed the multitude that came to hear Him. The sanctuary is sacred place of encounter with God who makes Himself present in the Eucharist. Just as Jesus went up a mountain to feed a multitude with bread, the priest ascends the sanctuary to feed us with the bread from Heaven, the Eucharist which is Jesus' Body and Blood. Think also of Mount Calvary on which Jesus sacrificed Himself for us. This sacrifice is re-presented in an unbloody at every Mass most fully in the sanctuary on the altar.

Notes from
VENERABLE FREDERIC BARAGA
First Bishop of Marquette

This morning Fr. Menet told me that last night [someone]had come to bring me or him to his seriously ill brother. However, Fr. Menet told him: "Do you think that the bishop will go to your brother at midnight?" And so the young man left without calling me. As soon as I heard of this, I immediately carried the Most Holy Sacrament to the sick man and also administered Extreme Unction to him.
