"Whoever receives one child such as this in my name,
receives me." - Mk 9:37a

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Cathedral & St. Mary Mission Family,

We had a great start to our Faith Formation programs last Sunday, and have begun the “Presence” series on Wednesday nights and the first RCIA session on Thursday nights for those interested in our Catholic faith. This Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. we’ll have our “Witness to Hope” event with Aaron Pap and his parents, John and Sue. I hope you’ll come to enjoy a light supper and then hear their inspiring story!

Next weekend, we’ll kick off this year’s U.P. Catholic Services Appeal. You’ve probably received Bishop John’s letter to you with materials for responding with your pledge or donation. If you have already responded, thank you very much! You’ll be receiving a letter from me, also, with response card if you have yet to send one in. We’ll also have materials in the pews at Masses so that you can fill out a card and drop it in the collection next weekend. Thanks for your generous responses that support all the ministries across our Diocese and help us reach our parish goal again! God bless you and yours!

In the Hearts of Jesus and Mary,

Rev. Msgr. Michael Steber

TWENTY- FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus and his disciples left from there and began a journey through Galilee, but he did not wish anyone to know about it. He was teaching his disciples and telling them, “The Son of Man is to be handed over to men and they will kill him, and three days after his death the Son of Man will rise.” But they did not understand the saying, and they were afraid to question him.

They came to Capernaum and, once inside the house, he began to ask them, “What were you arguing about on the way?” But they remained silent. They had been discussing among themselves on the way who was the greatest. Then he sat down, called the Twelve, and said to them, “If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all.” Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, “Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me.”

— the Sunday Gospel, Mark 9:30-37

"LIFE NOTES" from MONSIGNOR MICHAEL

1,500 pro-lifers focus on "the pain after abortion" at 9th March for Life in Switzerland

Not a lot of attention gets paid to the pro-life movement in Switzerland, so kudos to the Evangelical Focus News for posting about the ninth March for Life held September 15 in front of the Swiss Parliament in Bern.

The gathering, which drew around 1,500 people, had as its focus "The pain after abortion." (For a tiny nation, there are 10,000 abortions annually, according to the story.)

Two women talked about "post-abortion syndrome," and the terrible impact the abortion had on their lives.

"The more I tried to suppress my feelings, the more my depression grew," one of the women said, according to news agency Idea. She spoke of "God's love and embrace" in her process of healing, and called women and men to seek help and forgiveness: "A new life of hope and perspective is possible."

During the gathering a petition was launched to ask the Swiss Parliament to inform about the consequences of abortion," using scientific research. The government should implement such information plans in schools, universities, and medical centres," the petition read.

Unfortunately there were some 300 counter-protestors, described as "Leftist and anarchist groups" which "had called to boycott the March For Life and threatened participants of the pro-life gathering with violence." Fortunately, Evangelical Focus News reported "the group was always controlled by police offic-
