

Say the Word and My Soul Shall be healed

The past year has highlighted the urgent need for healing - physical, spiritual, emotional - in ourselves and in the world. As our world struggles to heal, complete healing is not possible without Jesus as the Divine Physician.

When our soul heals, all heals, despite our suffering.

The words we pray at Mass, "Say the Word and My Soul Shall be Healed", have the power to remind us of, to open our eyes to, the healing that Jesus offers us in the Eucharist which is essential, eternal, and ever open to us.

We humbly ask him to say the word, and with that prayer, we have faith that, with the fantastic and improbable prospect of Jesus entering under our roof, our souls shall be healed

Be Healed

Somewhere deep inside each one of us is a burning desire to finally become the person God created us to be.

By charting her own journey toward wholeness, Heidland invites young Catholics to pursue their own relationship with Jesus; giving hope that anyone who desires to know Christ can find him and be loved intimately by him in return

Loved as I am
