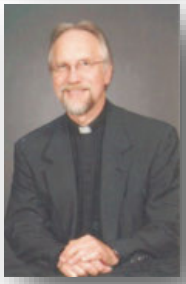
From the Pastor's Desk



Dear Cathedral and St. Mary Mission Families,

This weekend we celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Easter, still celebrating our Lord's Resurrection and victory over sin, death, and the devil. As you read this, I will be serving on the Charismatic Retreat at Garden Grove (former Marygrove) Retreat center. Our guest retreat speaker is James "Butch" Murphy, who has been with us on retreat several times over the years – he is a wonderful speaker and leader, serving on international teams for evangelization and unity. I'm grateful for Fr. Robb Jurkovich being able to celebrate the Mass at St. Mary's this weekend to allow me to be at the retreat.

Last weekend we were able to announce the new assignment Fr. Ben will begin on July 1st – to serve as pastor of Precious Blood Parish in Stephenson. It's been a great blessing to have Fr. Ben with us, and he will be a blessing to the people of his new parish. We'll be awaiting an announcement of a new Associate Pastor for us in the days ahead.

Great thanks to all of you who made pledges or donations to our "Grateful for God's Mercies" campaign last weekend for Commitment Sunday. Your generous stewardship is helping us move closer to our goals!

Next Sunday, May 7th, we will celebrate First Holy Communion for our children at the 10:30 a.m. Mass. Please keep the children and their families in your prayers as they prepare to receive our Lord!

God bless you and yours!

In the Hearts of Jesus and Mary,

✝ Msgr. Michael J. Steber

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Jesus said: "Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever does not enter a sheepfold through the gate but climbs over elsewhere is a thief and a robber. But whoever enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has driven out all his own, he walks ahead of them, and the sheep follow him, because they recognize his voice. But they will not follow a stranger; they will run away from him, because they do not recognize the voice of strangers." Although Jesus used this figure of speech, the Pharisees did not realize what he was trying to tell them. So Jesus said again, "Amen, amen, I say to you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. A thief comes only to steal and slaughter and destroy; I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly." - Sunday's Gospel Jn 10: 1 - 10

MISSION STATEMENT: To encounter Christ through the Eucharist and answer His call to holiness.

To carry out our mission, we:

- follow in the footsteps of Saint Peter and Ven. Bishop Baraga in our commitment to proclaim the Gospel message of Jesus Christ and make disciples of all nations through evangelization and Catholic faith formation;
- are committed to prayerful lives and fostering participation in Eucharistic Adoration and other liturgical devotions;
- welcome and serve our community, especially the less fortunate and one another.

If you have announcements to put in the bulletin please turn them in to Lucy Dewitt at secretary@stpetercathedral.org or Katelyn Napier at katelyn.mckeen.youthministry@gmail.com by 5:00 pm on Monday.

LATIN MASS REMINDER
Every Sunday at 1:00pm

Verso L'alto

(to the heights)

30th at St. Peter Cathedral

Beginning in August of 1926 and running until June of 1928, the Cristero War wreaked havoc on Mexico. The government wanted to eradicate the influence of the Catholic Church throughout the country. Priests were executed, many others were persecuted, and Catholic properties were seized. This led to a rebellion from Catholics living in Mexico who fought to preserve religious liberty. This is the context in which St. Jose Luis Sanchez del Rio lived. Jose's brothers joined the rebel forces although he was too young to enlist in the war. But Jose desperately wanted the opportunity to stand up for his faith. He was persistent and begged his mother to let him join the rebellion. Eventually the rebel general allowed Jose to join the troops as a flagbearer.

On January 25th, 1928, Jose was captured in battle. During his captivity Jose was threatened with death if he did not renounce his faith. He was even forced to watch another rebel be hanged, but Jose only encouraged the rebel to hold fast to his faith. While in captivity, Jose's father tried to raise funds for a ransom, but he was too late.

On February 10th, 1928, Jose's captors cut the bottom of his feet and forced him to walk to the cemetery outside of town. They told him that if he shouted "death to Christ the King" they would let him go. Instead, Jose repeatedly shouted "viva Cristo Rey y Santa Maria de Guadalupe!" which means "long live Christ the King and Holy Mary of Guadalupe!" When they arrived at his grave, the soldiers first stabbed Jose and then shot him. He died just a month shy of his fifteenth birthday. Jose's heroism is a reminder that we are called to be holy at every age and every season of life. No one is too young to be a saint and stand up for their faith. St. Jose Luis Sanchez del Rio, ruega por nosotros!

Word of Life
April 2023

"People often say, "I could never handle a child with a disability." But the beauty of parenting is that you aren't given a child with a disability. You are given your child with a disability. Your child enters the world in a relationship with you, and that changes everything. You are not called to 'handle' a disability. You are called to love a particular person, and caring for him or her grows out of that love."
