From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Cathedral and St Mary Mission Families,

This Sunday we celebrate the Third Sunday of Advent, traditionally called "Gaudete Sunday" from the Latin in the Introit Antiphon "Gaudete" meaning "Rejoice." We are nearing the celebration of our Savior's birth, so we rejoice... the use of Rose colored vestments and lighting the Rose candle in the Advent wreath is part of this joy. We've also had the joy of repentance and receiving God's mercy in Reconciliation at our Penance Services.

Thank you to all helping to decorate the Cathedral and St. Mary's for the full joy of Christmas! Also, great thanks to our Choirs and Music Director for all your practicing for the Christmas Masses! I hope you have received the parish Christmas card with its listing of the Christmas Mass schedule. Next weekend will bring us into the Christmas Masses to celebrate the coming of our Savior... May any visitors to our parishes find a warm welcome and reverent, uplifting worship!

Remember the free copies of the Magnificat devotional in the Gathering Area, as well as a special gift book "Beautiful Eucharist" that is free for you in the Gathering Area, too. I think you will enjoy it and find it inspiring!

May all of you and your loved ones be drawn into the depth of God's love in sending us His Son, Jesus. God bless you all!

In the Hearts of Jesus and Mary,

✠ Msgr. Michael J. Steber

Second Sunday in Advent

A man named John was sent from God. He came for testimony, to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came to testify to the light. And this is the testimony of John.

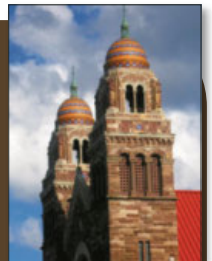

When the Jews from Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to him to ask him, "Who are you?" He admitted and did not deny it, but admitted, "I am not the Christ." So they asked him, "What are you then? Are you Elijah?" And he said, "I am not." "Are you the Prophet?" He answered, "No." So they said to him, "Who are you, so we can give an answer to those who sent us? What do you have to say for yourself?" He said: "I am the voice of one crying out in the desert, 'make straight the way of the Lord,'" as Isaiah the prophet said." Some Pharisees were also sent. They asked him, "Why then do you baptize if you are not the Christ or Elijah or the Prophet?" John answered them, "I baptize with water; but there is one among you whom you do not recognize, the one who is coming after me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to untie."
This happened in Bethany across the Jordan, where John was baptizing. Today's Gospel Jn 1:6-8,19-28

MISSION STATEMENT: To encounter Christ through the Eucharist and answer His call to holiness.

To carry out our mission, we:

- follow in the footsteps of Saint Peter and Ven. Bishop Baraga in our commitment to proclaim the Gospel message of Jesus Christ and make disciples of all nations through evangelization and Catholic faith formation;
- are committed to prayerful lives and fostering participation in Eucharistic Adoration and other liturgical devotions;
- welcome and serve our community, especially the less fortunate and one another.

If you have announcements to put in the bulletin please turn them in to Lucy Dewitt at secretary@stpetercathedral.org or Katelyn Napier at katelyn.mckeen.youthministry@gmail.com by 5:00 pm on Monday.

"I am not my own; I have given myself to Jesus. He must be my only Love."

Saint Kateri Tekakwitha

St. Kateri Tekakwitha brought me full circle in my journey to the priesthood. When I was in high school, after having my major conversion at a Steubenville conference, my youth group leader told me about a book she was reading on St. Kateri Tekakwitha, who is the first Native American Saint. I asked her if I could read it after she had finished. I enjoyed St. Kateri's life story at my family's hunting camp in November of my freshman year of high school. This was the very first Saint biography I had ever encountered and read. She was a Mohawk Indian, who embraced Catholicism at the age of 19. She struggled with scarring on her face from smallpox and was partially blind. Her name is in honor of St. Catherine of Siena, who she had a deep devotion towards. Sadly her family passed away from the smallpox outbreak that scarred her. She would then live with her uncle and aunt, who with her whole tribe would persecute and make her life miserable for converting to Catholicism.

She later moved to Montrael, where it was more acceptable to be Catholic and Native American. She was eager to learn more about her faith, but would pass away, from illness, shortly after moving, at the young age of 24. The reason why I share all of this is not because she is the first Saint I learned about in depth after my conversion, but because it is clear to me that she wants to aid me in my journey homeward to God. Shortly after my ordination on a drive from one classmate's ordination to another classmate's ordination I found myself in Caughnawaga, Quebec, Canada. (just outside of Montrael) in the Church where St. Kateri is buried. Pictured above is her tomb. I was utterly awe struck at this moment. It wasn't planned, but I fell right into her. All I could think was she wanted me to remember that life changing moment of grace in high school and to see how far I had come. For as she said, "I am not my own; I have given myself to Jesus. He must be my only love." I pray that He is that for you, and that you have saints like St. Kateri, who will remind you of the grace and love He has blessed you with in your journey towards Him, Your One Love.

Know of my prayers and please keep me in yours.

God bless, Fr. Matthew

Notes from VENERABLE FREDERIC BARAGA First Bishop of Marquette

About four o'clock in the morning, Baraga could be found kneeling on the cold, frozen ground, deeply engrossed in prayer. To talk thus to his Master rekindled his every burning missionary Zeal into a lambent flame.

Help welcome in the New Year with prayer!

To thank God for the many blessings of 2023 and to ask Him for guidance in the New Year.

Word of Life

December 2023

"O St. Bakhita, assist all those who are trapped in a state of slavery; Intercede with God on their behalf so that they will be released from their chains of captivity.

Those whom man enslaves, let God set free." USCCB, "Prayer to St. Josephine Bakhita"

Prayer to

St. Josephine Bakhita

St. Josephine Bakhita, you were sold into slavery as a child and endured untold hardship and suffering. Once liberated from your physical enslavement, you found true redemption in your encounter with Christ and his Church.

O St. Bakhita, assist all those who are trapped in a state of slavery; Intercede with God on their behalf so that they will be released from their chains of captivity. Those whom man enslaves, let God set free.

Provide comfort to survivors of slavery and let them look to you as an example of hope and faith. Help all survivors find healing from their wounds. We ask for your prayers and intercessions for those enslaved among us.

Amen.
