From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Cathedral and St. Mary Mission Families,

This weekend we celebrate Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord, bringing us into Holy Week. In Holy Week, we are drawn into the Passion of the Lord in three special liturgies that we call the Sacred Triduum – Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday. They are actually seen as one great Liturgy, taking us into the depth of our Lord's love and sacrifice for us.

On Holy Thursday, we join in Jesus' institution of the Priesthood and the Holy Eucharist at the 'Lord's Supper'. When Mass concludes, we process with the Blessed Sacrament through the church and place the Eucharist in a place of repose to adore the Lord for a time...

On Good Friday, we don't actually celebrate Mass (the one day in the year that this is so), but pray a Passion Liturgy. We hear the Gospel of the Lord's Passion and Death, we intercede for many people and nations, and we venerate the Lord's Cross. Holy Communion is distributed from what was consecrated on Holy Thursday.

On Holy Saturday, we meditate on the time of our Lord's body being in the tomb, His descent into the realm of the dead (bringing His victory and mercy to those awaiting our Savior), and we prepare for the Easter Vigil that evening. During that beautiful Vigil, we will celebrate the Sacraments of Initiation with Catechumens and Candidates from the OCIA process, and we'll renew our Baptismal Promises, too.

Easter Sunday is the culmination of the Triduum, celebrating our Lord's Resurrection and His Victory over sin, death, and the devil. Please take time to join in all of the Liturgies of Holy Week, to honor and thank the Lord for His Victory!

In the Hearts of Jesus and Mary

✠ Msgr. Michael J. Steber

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

At noon darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon.

And at three o'clock Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?"

which is translated, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

Some of the bystanders who heard it said, "Look, he is calling Elijah."

One of them ran, soaked a sponge with wine, put it on a reed and gave it to him to drink saying,

"Wait, let us see if Elijah comes to take him down."

Jesus gave a loud cry and breathed his last.

From Sunday's Gospel Mk 14:1-15:47

Word Of Life

“There is an everyday heroism, made up of gestures of sharing, big or small, which build up an authentic culture of life... Part of this daily heroism is also the silent but effective and eloquent witness of all those ‘brave mothers who devote themselves to their own family without reserve, who suffer in giving birth to their children and who are ready to make any effort, to face any sacrifice, in order to pass on to them the best of themselves’... We thank you, heroic mothers, for your invincible love! We thank you for your intrepid trust in God and in his love. We thank you for the sacrifice of your life”
