From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Cathedral and St. Mary Mission Families,

This weekend we celebrate the Third Sunday of Easter... Do you notice how the Church celebrates the Easter mysteries for Seven Sundays and then celebrates Pentecost Sunday as the culmination of Easter season, with the Lord's Ascension preceding it. It gives us an extended time to be thanking and praising the Lord for His infinite mercy and His victory over sin, death, and the devil. We want to stay with the Lord these days as the first disciples did, and allow the Holy Spirit to work in us...

We'll be celebrating Connor Hubbard's First Holy Communion this Sunday, April 14th at the 10:30 a.m. Mass, and the rest of our First Communion group will celebrate that sacrament on Sunday, May 5th at the 10:30 a.m. Mass. Please keep our children and their families in your prayers as they receive the Lord and give themselves to Him, beginning a life-long Eucharistic love and life!

Remember that the Diocesan celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation will be on Sunday, April 21st at 3:30 p.m. We will have eight or nine youth from our parish to be confirmed along with at least one adult member of our parish. Please pray for them to receive a fresh outpouring of the Holy Spirit in this Sacrament.

We will be bringing our RCIA or OCIA sessions to a conclusion soon with a dinner tentatively on Thursday, April 25th. It's always a special time of recognizing what the Lord has been doing in each one's life and the bonds of faith and friendship that have been formed. We're always open to meeting more people who are interested in our Catholic faith through the summer before another full session of OCIA starts up usually in Fall. If you know someone interested, give us a call... God bless you!

In the Hearts of Jesus and Mary,

Mgr. Michael J. Steber

Third Sunday of Easter

The two disciples recounted what had taken place on the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost. Then he said to them,

"Why are you troubled?

And why do questions arise in your hearts?

Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have."

And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet.

While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them, "Have you anything here to eat?"

They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them.

He said to them,

"These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them,

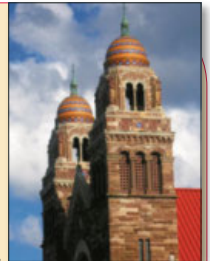

"Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

Sunday's Gospel Lk 24:35-48

MISSION STATEMENT: To encounter Christ through the Eucharist and answer His call to holiness.

To carry out our mission, we:

- follow in the footsteps of Saint Peter and Ven. Bishop Baraga in our commitment to proclaim the Gospel message of Jesus Christ and make disciples of all nations through evangelization and Catholic faith formation;
- are committed to prayerful lives and fostering participation in Eucharistic Adoration and other liturgical devotions;
- welcome and serve our community, especially the less fortunate and one another.

Liturgical Notes

Please note that the “greeting of peace” during Mass is to be exchanged only when a minister invites the congregation to do so. When we are invited to exchange the greeting of peace, it is to be exchanged only with one’s immediate neighbor, respectful and mindful of the great and solemn Presence of Christ on the altar. Possible waving and signaling of peace sign grossly misinterprets this holy moment.

Notes from
VENERABLE FREDERIC BARAGA
First Bishop of Marquette

“As soon as my parishioners perform their Easter Devotions, I set out to announce the word of God to others of those children of nature who have never heard it from the mouth of a Catholic priest.”

Frederic Baraga 1832

Diocesan Priest Retirement Collection

Retired priests of the Diocese of Marquette receive health and automobile insurance and a monthly pension from the St. Joseph Association the diocesan priest retirement fund. Diocesan priests live independently during their retirement, and they use their pension for basic needs, such as food, housing and transportation.

All parishes and missions in the Diocese of Marquette will participate in a special collection on April 20th and 21st to help provide for our senior diocesan priests. It is essential that we ensure adequate retirement and health coverage in the years ahead for our priests, especially in these challenging times.

Please return your collection envelope during next weekends' Masses or donate to the St. Joseph Association online by visiting osvhub.com/diocesefmarquette/giving/funds/st-joseph-association.

St. Vincent de Paul Society Palm Sunday

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus explains the meaning of the scriptures. Like the disciples, when we offer and receive forgiveness our hearts burn because we encounter the risen Christ within us.

Have you considered answering the call to "help the poor find forgiveness and healing in their life" by joining the Society of St Vincent de Paul?

Please call John or Jan Keto at (906)-226-7366
For information on joining.

Word Of Life ~ April 14, 2024

"Like us, Christ entered the world through the womb of a woman. He willingly experienced the fullness of human suffering. He breathed his last on the Cross at Calvary in order that He might save us. Therefore, 'God is the foundation of hope: not any god, but the God who has a human face and who has loved us to the end' (Spe salvi 31)."
