25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus said to his disciples, "A rich man had a steward who was reported to him for squandering his property. He summoned him and said, 'What is this I hear about you? Prepare a full account of your stewardship, because you can no longer be my steward.' The steward said to himself, 'What shall I do, now that my master is taking the position of steward away from me? I am not strong enough to dig and I am ashamed to beg. I know what I shall do so that, when I am removed from the stewardship, they may welcome me into their homes.' He called in his master's debtors one by one. To the first he said, 'How much do you owe my master?' He replied, 'One hundred measures of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Here is your promissory note. Sit down and quickly write one for fifty.' Then to another the steward said, 'And you, how much do you owe?' He replied, 'One hundred kors of wheat.' The steward said to him, 'Here is your promissory note; write one for eighty.' And the master commended that dishonest steward for acting prudently.

"For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. I tell you, make friends for yourselves with dishonest wealth, so that when it fails, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings. The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth? If you are not trustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you what is yours? No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon."

are interested, or you know someone who is, please contact me at boman@stpetercathedral.org.

On November 13th, we will host the theologian, Dr. Daniel Keating, PhD. Dr. Keating is Professor of Theology at Sacred Heart Major Seminary where he teaches on the Church Fathers, Ecumenism, and the New Evangelization. Dr. Keating will offer a presentation on the writings of the early Church Fathers concerning the Eucharist. Trust me when I say, we are in for a real treat. The evening will begin at 6pm with dinner and the talk will be at 7pm. The parish will provide the main course: pasta from Casa Calabria. For side dishes and desserts, please bring a dish to pass. This is an event for the entire family.

Veterans, Save the Date! At 10:30am Mass on November 9th, the Sunday before Veterans Day, we will honor Veterans, those currently serving in the armed forces, and cadets. If possible, please wear your service dress to Mass. The color guard from the Wildcat Battalion of Army ROTC at NMU will post the colors before Mass begins. Thank you for serving our country!

In Christ,

Fr. Brandon

ROOM DESIGN FACILITIES COMMITTEE

We need people of all skills to organize the church ministry rooms. We will exam all the elements in each room to design visually appealing spaces that function to the fullest for each ministry. This will include forming a future master plan leading us to well designed spaces to function well for each of our ministries. To utilize our resources well, we will begin working with the existing resources at hand.

We will be both a conceptual and a hands-on committee. Working in specialized and collaborative groups with many skill sets from committee leaders, organizers, strong backs, and helping hands to sort and clean out the clutter. Our mission will be to transform our spaces to fit each ministries needs the best we can with what we have available and what we can obtain.

Please consider volunteering if you have gifts of:

Leadership • Planning • Problem Solving • Design

Physical strength to help move furniture

Sorting and cleaning clutter

Organizing cabinets and storage areas

Word Of Life... September 21, 2025

“Throughout salvation history, God has welcomed repentant sinners with special joy. Jesus concludes the parable of the lost sheep with these words: ‘there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance’ (Lk 15:7)*.”

St. Mary Mission History, cont'd from Sept. 14th:

When Fr. Ignatz came in the early twenties, the debt had been paid through the ladies' projects. They still had no altar or seats. Little by little the church was furnished. The Marquette Branch Prison donated the first altar, and 100 chairs were purchased from a club room in Oshkosh, Wisconsin, through the efforts of W. Webster. Mother Julian of St. Mary's Hospital donated the Sacred Heart statue. J. L. Dufrein added the Little Flower and William Rousseau the bell. The old set of Stations were obtained from Sacred Heart, Munising, through Mrs. Jim Madigan in 1922. Father Waechter had new pews made the same year by the Consolidated Lumber Co., who shipped them unassembled. The men of the Church set them up and for the first time, parishioners had kneelers. To be continued...

MISSION STATEMENT: As a Eucharistic community, we are on a mission to serve our God by serving each other and the world around us while we proclaim and live the Gospel.
