FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Happy 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time! In the Gospel for this Sunday, Matthew 18:15–20, our Lord teaches us how to confront sin or wrongdoing committed against us, especially by a fellow disciple.

Jesus says: compose a post on social media, tell everyone how terrible the person is, and then wait for people to congratulate you for courageously casting off your oppressor.

Well, maybe not.

That is not the Christian way of dealing with conflict. But neither does Jesus tell us simply to remain silent, nurse a grudge, or pretend that nothing happened. His first instruction is direct: "Go and tell him his fault between you and him alone."

This is a deeply personal approach, and it takes guts. It is often much easier to talk about someone than to talk to someone. The goal is not to embarrass, defeat, or punish the other person. The goal is to win back a brother or sister: "If he listens to you, you have won over your brother" (v. 15). Jesus then gives further steps when reconciliation proves difficult, reminding us that love is not the same thing as avoiding hard conversations. Love sometimes requires correction, patience, and perseverance.

UPCSA! The kick-off for the 59th annual U.P. Catholic Services Appeal (UPCSA) is this weekend, Sept 5-6 for St. Peter Cathedral and St. Mary Mission. For St. Peter's, our goal is $69,469. For St. Mary's, our goal is $7,780. For more information, please visit dioceseofmarquette.org/upcsa. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

In Christ,

Fr. Brandon

Notes from

VENERABLE FREDERIC BARAGA

First Bishop of Marquette

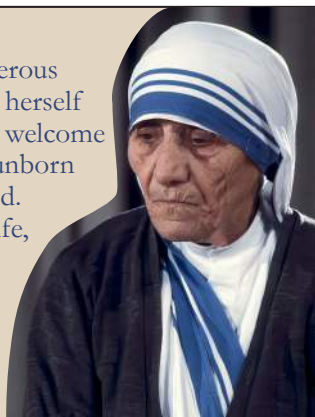

"He doesn't have much physical strength, but he does have an iron will... Despite his weak constitution, he goes everywhere straight ahead and Providence, which is always with him, helps him everywhere."

*John Kohl regarding Bishop Baraga

"Mother Teresa,

in all aspects of her life, was a generous dispenser of divine mercy, making herself available for everyone through her welcome and defense of human life, those unborn and those abandoned and discarded. She was committed to defending life, ceaselessly proclaiming that "the unborn are the weakest, the smallest, the most vulnerable".
