FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Greetings and Salutations!

Happy 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Today's Gospel gives us the profound Parable of the Workers in the Vineyard. In the parable, each worker receives the same wage—one denarius—whether he worked the entire day or only a single hour. And at first glance, that doesn't seem fair. But Jesus is teaching us an important truth about the radical generosity of God's mercy. One person may turn to God early in life and faithfully follow Him for many years.

Another may wander far from God and return to Him only in the final moments of life—at the "eleventh hour." Yet both can receive the same ultimate reward: eternal life with God. God's mercy does not operate according to our calculations of what seems fair or deserved. His mercy is extravagant. It turns our ordinary way of thinking upside down. And for sinners—which means all of us—that is an incredibly encouraging thought.

From September 21–24, Fr. Zachary and I will be attending the annual Convocation for Priests of the Diocese of Marquette.

The 8:00am Mass will be celebrated as usual by Msgr. Jed Patrick.

Please note the following schedule changes:

- Tuesday, September 22: 4:30pm Confessions and 5:15pm Mass are canceled.
- Wednesday, September 23: 5:15pm Mass is canceled.

Please keep the priests of our diocese in your prayers during our time together.

Concerning UPCA, to date we have received $29,111 toward our parish goal of $69,469. Thank you to everyone who has already contributed. If you have not yet made your gift, please prayerfully consider supporting this important appeal.

In Christ,

Fr. Brandon

Padre Pio: Miracle Man

This movie captures the Capuchin friar's intense faith, devotion, and deep spiritual concern for others, as well as his great compassion for the sick and suffering. It reveals the amazing details and events in Padre Pio's life as a boy and throughout his fifty years as a friar, dramatizing the frequent attacks from the devil, as well as the persecution he suffered at the hands of people, including those in the Church.

Saint Matthew | Catholic Saints

Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. We are all familiar with the four Gospels, but what makes them stand out from the rest? Join Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. Michael Barber as they discuss St. Matthew, the great Apostle and evangelist.

Bible Study: The Gospel of Matthew 1:1-25

Join Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. Michael Barber as they begin studying the Gospel of Matthew by introducing St. Matthew and looking at chapter 1 of this incredible gospel.
